I just discovered a great Chicago-style pizza place. If you're not familiar with Chicago-style pizza, it's a deep dish pizza with a layer of crust on top, covered by cheese and sauce.

The place is called Chicago Pizza Company. It's located on Hwy 52 West right past the Cobblestone shoe store on Hwy 31 (by Home Depot).

Their website is <http://www.chicago-pizzaco.com/index.html>

Take my word...it's very delicious! :P

Unfortunately, it closed. I just discovered one on HWY 150 in Galleria Trace plaza across from Walmart. It's called Tortuga.

That is the same place that ran Chicago Pizza Company. You need to try it. If you love deep-dish pizza, you'll love this!
