

Prize Drawing: The Promise print

Contributed by Admin
Tuesday, 24 June 2008

We are happy to announce our first MyWeatherly.com prize drawing!

Ready to frame print of William R. Cleere painting "The Promise", retail value $60. It is sponsored by Jennifer Cleere.

Drawing will be held on 4th of July ,after the Bicycle Parade. All registered MyWeatherly.com users will be automatically entered for the drawing (have to be registered by 6:00 AM of the day of the drawing). Winner will have to be the Weatherly or Old Weatherly resident to receive the prize. The Promise

Click to enlarge William R. Cleere, Artist

May 1943-April 1998 Bill Cleere began painting in 1983 under the instruction of well-known artist Milton Lenoir. After learning the basic techniques, Bill developed his own style in acrylic and watercolor painting. He often hid the signature on his work because he felt it should be a part of the painting.

Bill's work has been featured on the covers of five publications, both regionally and nationally. His paintings have been purchased by hundreds of private collectors, as well as corporations such as Southern Natural Gas, American Bell, Brookwood Hospital, United Chair and Southeastern Tag and Label. He won more than fifty awards during his career at art shows across the Southeast.

After a long battle with cancer, Bill passed away April 15, 1998. His family feels his artwork should continue to be enjoyed by art lovers. These are limited edition prints from Bill's collection.

If anyone is interested in more of his work they can reach Jennifer at agentjen@bellsouth.net.